NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Travelers' Association Elects Officers for Year.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET SOON

Date Will Be Fixed for Primary. Terms of Four Aldermen and Eight Councilmen Expire in August—Funeral Services for William H. May to Be Held To-morrow.

F. Clinton Knight, 655 King street, Alexandria, Va., is authorized agent and carrier for The Washington Herald. The Herald will be delivered daily and Sunday to any address in Alexandria for 50 cents a month.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 655 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., April 9.—Post P. Travelers' Protective Association, at its annual meeting to-night in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, elected officers, and chose fifteen delegates and an equal number of alternates to attend the annual State convention in Staunton on May 13 and 14.

The officers are J. Y. Williams, president; H. K. Field, vice president; R. M. Graham, secretary and treasurer; C. C. Carlin, counsel; Dr. S. B. Moore, past surgeon; Rev. J. R. Sevier, chaplain; C. C. Leadbeater, R. S. Jones, W. C. Davis, G. D. Hopkins, F. S. Harper, and J. T. Johnson, board of directors. Chairmen of committees: A. D. Brooker, railroad; J. H. Trimyer, legislative; O. B. Kirk, press; Raymond Hulshuf, hotel; W. A. Smoot, jr., employment; J. William May, membership, and J. Clinton Smoot, good roads.

The delegates are J. William May, W. G. Rogers, O. H. Kirk, M. L. Price, Jr., Raymond Hulshuf, William Leadbeater, John T. Johnson, William Reardon, Jr., T. A. Sommers, H. K. Field, R. S. Jones.

HOME FAT REDUCER

Works Rapidly and Safely—Requires No Exercising and Allows You to Eat What You Like—Cut This Out.

For the benefit of those who wish to reduce their flesh quickly and safely, we will give the receipt and directions in full for a simple household remedy that can be obtained at trifling cost from any good drug store; by ounce Marmola, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 25 ounces Peppermint Water. All three are cheap and wholesome, but you should take care to get an unbroken package so that you get Marmola and not a substitute. When you get home mix the three together by shaking them together in a large bottle and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Follow these directions and you will have the best fat reducer that money can buy. It will take off the flesh at the rate of at least two pounds a week without disturbing the stomach or causing wrinkles, while, best of all, no exercising or dieting is required to help it out. You can get results and at the same time take things easy and eat what you like—as much as you like—and whenever you like.

J. H. Trimyer, H. L. Reed, J. A. Hulshuf, and Wallace Lindsay. The alternates are Carl Schafer, Edgar Wardell, Jr., W. P. Taylor, A. H. Thompson, R. E. Miller, W. C. Davis, R. M. Chickester, M. W. Dunnington, R. F. Downham, D. N. Hulshuf, M. E. Greene, K. W. Odgen, C. T. Nicholson, T. C. Howard, and Harry Hammond.

The terms of four aldermen and eight councilmen will expire on August 31. It is expected that within a short time a meeting of the city Democratic committee will be called for the purpose of obtaining candidates and for fixing upon a date for the primary. The election is scheduled for the second Tuesday in June.

According to reports, some of the city fathers will not be candidates again. Several will have opposition. Councilman Franklin T. Evans, the only Republican member of council, whose term also expires, will not enter the primary, of course.

The following is a list of those whose terms expire: Aldermen—Jacob Brill, First ward; F. F. Marbury, Second ward; J. R. N. Curtin, Third ward; C. J. W. Sumners, Fourth ward. Councilmen—Hubert Snowden and Thomas Rishell, First ward; Henry Baader and Louis Brill, Second ward; W. B. Hellmuth and J. Fred Birrell, Third ward; Franklin T. Evans and L. E. Uhler, Fourth ward.

Funeral services for William H. May, who died early this morning, will be held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon from his home, 616 Cameron street. The services will be conducted by Rev. Harry M. Canter, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and Rev. O. C. Beall, pastor of the Del Ray Methodist Church. Members of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, will attend the funeral in a body. Mr. May was past commander of the Confederate veterans from the Washington Normal Kindergarten Training School.

Miss Eunice Barnum, prominent and well-known resident of Lincolnia, Fairfax county, died at her home at 2 o'clock this afternoon after a long illness. She was seventy-four years old. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from Cottage farm and the burial will be made at that place.

Alderman J. Marriott Hill has, it is reported, sold to Frederick Schuler the store building on the north side of King street, just west of Pitt street, known as 503 King street. The property is regarded as one of the most valuable in King street. Mr. Schuler will shortly improve it.

A meeting of the eight census enumerators for this city was held at the post-office building this afternoon. They were given instructions by Albert Fletcher, Jr., of Warrenton, Va., supervisor for the Eighth Congressional district. The work will be commenced April 15. The enumerators are E. J. Tomling and D. E. Robery, First ward; Harris White and Joseph A. Delaney, Second ward; Braxton B. Smith and James Callan, Third ward; and Carlin R. Creighton and Robert W. French, Fourth ward.

Opening services in the new Braddock Heights Episcopal Church will be held at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and will be conducted by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church. Sunday school services will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and will be in charge of Mr. Thompson, of Episcopal Theological Seminary.

Arrangements have been made for a meeting of the general committee appointed to make arrangements for the entertainment of visiting firemen at the State convention, which meeting will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock in Columbia engine house. All members of the committee are urged to be present.

J. D. Normoyle purchased at auction today four lots on the south side of Wythe street. The purchase price was $106. The lots were sold by S. H. Lunt.

As a result of his right hand being caught in a crusher at the Fifth street plant this morning, William E. Allen, Jr. of this city, had four fingers badly mashed. His injuries were dressed at Providence Hospital, Washington.

When the case of the six negroes arrested yesterday for shooting "craps" was called in the Police Court this morning only three appeared. The others forfeited $5 collateral each. Those appearing were acquitted.

There will be a meeting of Marley Encampment of Odd Fellows at Odd Fellows' Hall Monday night. The royal purple degree will be conferred upon a class of three candidates.

Policemen Young and Reed at 3 o'clock this morning picked up a stray horse found roaming the street. The animal is now at a livery stable and has not been called for.

MRS. C. J. GOCKELER BURIED.

Mrs. Christian J. Gockeler, who died Thursday, was buried yesterday afternoon in Rock Creek Cemetery, after funeral services at the family home, 312 K street northwest. Rev. John T. Huddle, pastor of St. Paul's Church, officiated.

The honorary pallbearers were A. P. Fox, Louis Hartig, Wilbur Nash, and Henry Trager. J. E. Jenks, William Haney, Harvey Rogers, J. Louis Wilgus, Robert Young, and A. Mevius acted as pallbearers.

Mrs. Gockeler, who was formerly Miss Lottie Mae Burkhardt, daughter of Herman Burkhardt, is survived by Mrs. Margaret Trager, Mrs. Ernest Armstrong, and William Burkhardt.

'VARSITY DEBATE ARRANGED

Seniors and Juniors Meet April 15 in Gaston Hall.

Subject of Discussion, Women's Political Rights—Representatives of Congress Referees.

The second term public debate between representatives of the Senior and Junior Debating societies of the Georgetown University Law School will take place at 8 o'clock the evening of April 15 in Gaston Hall, Georgetown University Building. The winners of this debate are to compete with those of a previous debate held during the first term for the faculty prize of $100. The prize debate will take place toward the close of the collegiate year.

The debaters for next Friday night are Girard M. Cohen and Daniel C. Mulowny, of the Senior Society, and Donald B. Creech and Kell V. Fite, of the Junior Society. The question to be discussed affirms "That women should have an equal right with men, subject to the same conditions and limitations, to vote on all public or political questions, whether national, State, or municipal." The Senior Society will contend for the affirmative. The judges for the debate are Representatives John J. Fitzgerald and Michael E. Driscoll, both of New York, and James M. Graham, of Illinois.

Daniel C. Mulowny, of the senior society, is a resident of Portland, Me., and graduated from Georgetown Law School in the class of 1909 with the degree of bachelor of laws. He is at present pursuing post-graduate work. Mr. Mulowny is a member of the Intercollegiate committee on debates, and has represented Georgetown debating societies in public debates on several occasions in the past.

Girard M. Cohen is a native of Brunswick, Ga. He is a graduate of Southern Business University, of Atlanta, and several years ago was admitted to practice law before the courts of his native State. He entered Georgetown University in 1907, and is at present vice president of the senior society. Mr. Cohen is prominent in the Improved Order of Red Men fraternity and a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Kell V. Fite, one of the representatives of the Junior Society, is an Alabamian and a graduate of the Sixth district town, Hamilton. While a member of the school he won renown as a debater of no mean ability, and was chosen orator for the Agathetian Literary Society of the school at its anniversary celebration in 1902. Mr. Fite is a member of the Alabama bar.

Donald B. Creech is a Washington boy, and is the product of the Georgetown Preparatory School and the university, except for a year spent at Princeton, where he prepared himself for a law course at the local university. He is a student in the second year class of the Georgetown Law School. Mr. Creech has appeared in public debate in the past, both in Princeton and in this city. His present home is in Howard County, Md.

'DARKEST AFRICA' ON SCREEN.

Roosevelt Expedition to Be Shown at Arcade Theater.

"Roosevelt in Africa" is the subject of a set of films that should rival the most interesting and instructive ever shown to those who avail themselves of an opportunity to visit the handsome theater of the Arcade Building, Fourteenth street and Park road northwest, the week beginning Monday April 18.

The scenes include the government buildings in Mombasa, Col. Roosevelt planting a tree in front of the Bomba Trading Company's office, native amusements in Mombasa, railway trip from Kiu to Naquro, Zulu women at spring, dance of the rainmaker, natives drinking water from a well, in the kraal, specimens of English feeding the young, Jackson's dancing bird, vultures and marabou storks feeding, woodpecker feeding its young, making and breaking camp at Bondoli, Zulu war dance and ceremonies in honor of Col. Roosevelt's visit by the natives, reviewing the maneuvers, Zulu helms, Col. Roosevelt examining gun before being presented to Chief Akawaki, starting on the trail, the home of the lizard, young Serval cat, giraffes on their native heath, the deadly African spider, giant land turtle, flashlight of a man-eating lion in the jungle, party crossing a stream, chameleon at play, rhinoceros, mother and baby; rhinoceros killed by the former president, hartbeest roaming over the veldt, visiting delegation of gnus and zebras, hippopotami at play in the Tana River, crocodile taking his morning plunge, picture of young deer, and Col. Roosevelt returning from his final hunting expedition.

The Arcade theater, with its original "Coroma" screen, is probably as well fitted to furnish the exhibition as any house of amusement of the kind in this section of the country.

DAMAGES APPRAISED.

Commission Reports on the Grade Changes Due to Union Station.

Appraisements of damages to property in the Southwest section, as a result of grade changes made in the abolition of the crossings on the line of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad, have been filed with the District Supreme Court by the special commission. The commission will next consider the cases of property owners in Maryland avenue southwest, between Tenth and Eleventh streets. A hearing will be held at the City Hall at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, when the realty owners will appear before the commission in support of their claims.

The commission consists of Charles A. Baker, George W. Moss, and George Spransy.

TOTS DELIGHT AUDIENCE.

Ladies' Auxiliary, Confederate Veterans, Give Entertainment.

Little tots delighted a throng last night at an entertainment given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Stonewall Jackson Tent, Confederate Veterans, at Carroll Institute Hall.

The exercises were opened with a Japanese love song by little girls dressed in oriental costumes. "Love and Whist," a play in one act, won favorable comment. Henry V. Yaeger played the role of Courtney Fairfax, a cosmopolitan, and her majesty's guard was acted by Le Roy Birch. Miss Sue Taggart was an American grand dame, and Miss Etta Taggart played the part of her daughter.

Max Kahn entertained the audience with several character sketches, while dialect stories were given by Miss Carroll. Miss Sherier gave a soprano solo, which was followed by Southern airs by Mrs. Armand Gumprecht. After the entertainment the hall was cleared for dancing.

DISORDERLY PASSENGER HURT.

Brookland Negro Thrown Off Street Car and Face Cut.

Arthur Rector, negro, who lives in Bunker Hill road, Brookland, D. C., came to town last night, and being unable to distinguish between that which is permissible for a city man and that which his country cousin will be permitted to do, conducted himself in a manner that landed him in Garfield Hospital with several deep lacerations of the face and head which were more painful than dangerous.

While a passenger on north-bound car No. 33, of the North Capitol street line, he became disorderly and refused to listen to Conductor Edward German until that official pitched him bodily into the street.

The action of the conductor was commended by the passengers, who have been much annoyed by many disturbances on the suburban lines.
